Property Description

Situated on the picture Isle of Lismore, Firglen offers buyers an exciting opportunity to acquire a traditional two-bedroom semi-detached property, an enchanting cottage enjoying far-reaching coastal views to the front.

The property is entered from the front elevation, with the main entrance door leading straight into the kitchen. The kitchen features range of beech effect wall and floor unit, complimented by a granite effect roll top worktop. Dual aspect windows flood the room with natural daylight, with the front facing windows offering views across the gardens and beyond across the water to the mainland.

A doorway leads from the kitchen through to the central hallway which links all rooms within the property. To the left, the family lounge is a cozy room, warmed through by an open grate fireplace sat within a tiled fire surround. The front window offers views out to a small courtyard which is positioned to the front of the house.

Accommodation is provided by way of two bedrooms, each large enough to accommodate a double bed. One of the bedrooms also benefits from front facing views across the gardens and coastline. A bathroom is also accessed from the hallway, featuring a full-size bath with shower over, and white two-piece bathroom suite.

Externally, the property benefits from a sizeable area of garden to the front, bordered by a stonewall and natural hedge. The garden extends down to offer views over the shoreline, a wonderful place to take the stunning coastal vista, Firglen is a delightful property on this popular west-coast island. This much-loved family home is well suited to both the first-time buyer and holiday let markets.

Firglen is located on the popular Scottish island of Lismore. The island harbour of Achnacroish serves the ferry between Lismore and Oban. The Isle of Lismore, a fertile and historic limestone island which has supported a population since Neolithic times, is one of the least explored of the Inner Hebrides.

Lismore has a well-respected primary school, village hall, general store, post office and heritage centre with café. The island has a thriving community, situated as it is a short distance from the mainland at Port Appin and accessed by a regular passenger ferry with a vehicular ferry operating daily services from Oban to the village of Achnacroish.
