Location

Travel south from the A97 in Aberchirder onto the minor road signposted for Netherdale. Follow the road for about 1.2 miles and the entrance track leading to the land is on your right. For those using what3words, the entrance is at ///mural.gazette.striving

In an area of farmland and rolling hills, the land lies just to the south of the village of Aberchirder where there are local businesses, shops, and delightful eateries, coming from the village's vibrant community spirit.

Nearby is the town of Turriff which also offers a range of shopping, business and leisure facilities, together with a sports centre with swimming pool, community centre, cottage hospital, primary and secondary schooling.

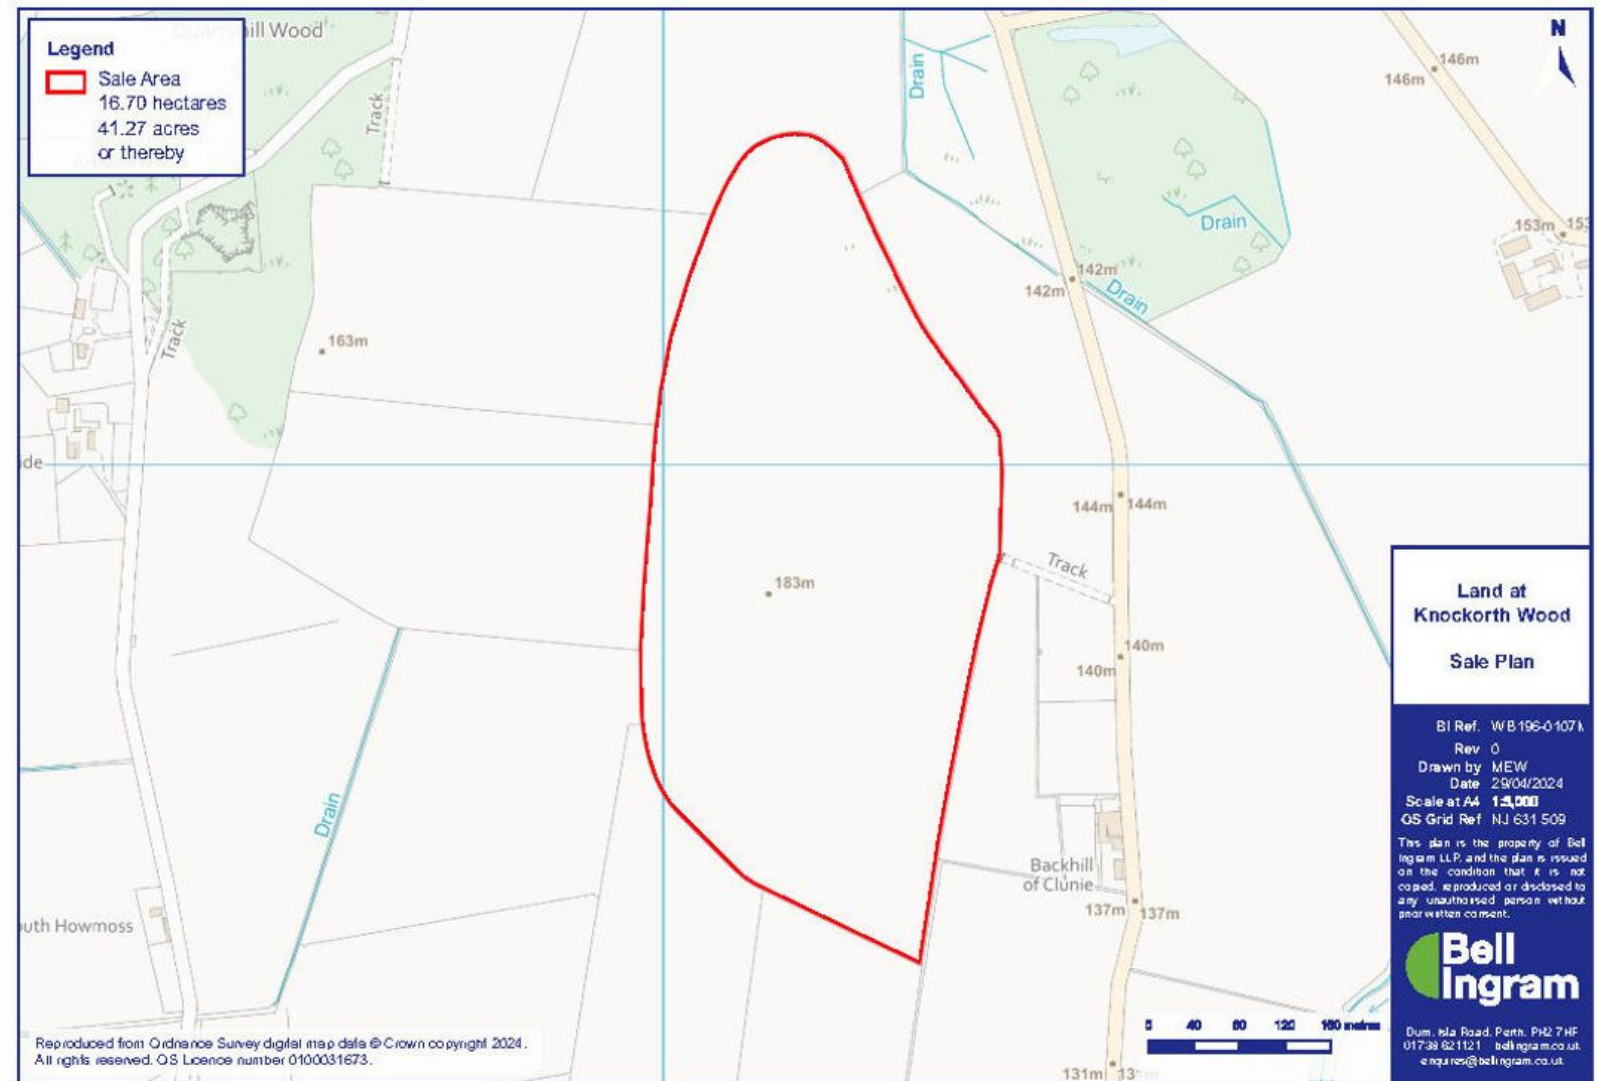

To the southeast is Huntly, an historic town, also with a wide variety of businesses and amenities in addition to many lovely walks nearby, excellent fishing and golf opportunities.

While the surrounding area comprises rolling farmland and open countryside, this part of the northeast of Scotland is also famed for its outdoor pursuits, including walking, mountain biking and golf. Salmon fishing is available on the rivers Deveron, Don, Dee and Spey, while game shooting is another popular sport. The nearby coast offers sailing and sandy beaches. Apart from its rich agricultural heritage, the area is steeped in historical interest, being in the heart of Castle Country.
