Property Description

Situated in a pleasant rural location on the banks of Loch Spelve, Feolinmor offers buyers an opportunity to acquire a traditional three-bedroom detached cottage, an enchanting property benefiting from stunning coastal views.

The property is entered from the side elevation, with a glazed sunroom leading through a boot room and into a combined kitchen / dining room. A traditional kitchen features a range of fitted wooden cabinets, complimented by matching wood and wood effect worktops. Twin windows are positioned to the front, offering super views across the loch. A dining table is positioned within the kitchen, large enough to accommodate six people.

To the right of the entrance door, a ground floor bedroom is configured for a single bed, also benefiting from a front facing window. Positioned at the heart of the house, the family lounge offers a cosy place to sit and relax. A sizable multi-fuel stove sits within the fireplace, offering a warmth and comfort in equal measure.

A doorway to the rear of the lounge gives access to a double bedroom, traditional in design with natural stone walls and exposed beam ceilings. A further doorway leads from the bedroom, giving access to a combined WC and utility room, also providing additional storage as required.

To the rear of the property, a more recent extension houses a further double bedroom, with dual aspect windows offering views out to the rear garden. The family bathroom sits adjacent to this bedroom, featuring a full-size bath with white WC and wash basin. An attached single garage is accessed via an up-and-over door, large enough to accommodate a vehicle while also offering workshop space at the far end.

It should be noted that the property requires renovation throughout, giving opportunity for those looking to create their perfect coastal hideaway. Interested parties are advised to review the Home Report for details of the property condition.

The property is set within mature gardens extending to approximately 1.72 acres. The front garden is primarily laid to lawn and bordered by a roadside hedge, with mature trees and shrubs providing a sense of seclusion. A gated driveway offers off-road parking and potential for extension along the side of the property—ideal for adding a garage, workshop, or polytunnel. There is also a stone bothy to the rear, ideal for renovation.
