Property Description

Situated within the scenic coastal hamlet of Croggan on the Isle of Mull, Cruachan presents a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented four-bedroom family home, complete with a detached studio building and ground-floor boat store.

The main house is accessed via the front elevation, where a welcoming vestibule opens into a spacious central hallway. To the right, a generously proportioned sitting room is bathed in natural light from triple aspect windows. A charming open-grate fire set within a brick fireplace adds warmth and character.

To the rear, a versatile ground-floor room, currently used as a games room, offers potential for overflow accommodation or a home office, depending on requirements.

To the left of the hallway, the open-plan kitchen and dining area enjoys a bright, airy ambiance and stunning views across the loch. The kitchen features an electric AGA, while a rear door leads to a secondary kitchen area equipped with modern appliances, including an electric oven, gas hob, and tall fridge freezer. This space also provides direct access to the side garden.

Upstairs, the first-floor hosts four bedrooms, one of which is currently arranged as a cozy sitting room/library. The two larger bedrooms offer front-facing coastal views, with the principal bedroom benefiting from a spacious en-suite bathroom. A separate shower room is also accessible from the landing, completing the upper-level layout.

Adjacent to the main house, the detached studio building is a standout feature. The upper floor offers a stunning open-plan creative space, configured as an art studio, with large Velux windows and a patio door that opens to breathtaking coastal views. Below, the ground floor serves as a garage or boat store, with ample storage and a convenient WC. Additional storage is tucked beneath the staircase.

The property is set within expansive gardens that extend down to the quiet single-track island road. A gated driveway leads up to parking areas at the front and side of the house. Beside the studio, an area is set aside for the storage of a small yacht—perfect for those eager to explore the surrounding coastline.

The front garden is mostly laid to lawn, offering a secure and generous space for children to play. This area may also be suitable for a building plot, subject to necessary consents. The surrounding natural environment is rich in wildlife, with frequent sightings of otters, sea eagles, and deer, making this a truly idyllic island retreat.

Location

Cruachan is situated in a lochside location within the peaceful coastal settlement of Croggan on the Isle of Mull, a picturesque location offering a blend of seclusion and adventure. Croggan is approximately 30 minutes' drive from Craginure, the main ferry port from the island.

The Isle of Mull is the second largest island within the Inner Hebrides. The island is accessed via a regular car ferry service from Oban to Craginure. Services from Lochaline and Kilchoan on the Morvern and Ardnamurchan peninsulas respectively are also available. There is a small airstrip at Glenforsa suitable for private aircraft and a main line train service operating several times daily between Glasgow and Oban - some connecting directly with the ferries.
