Location

Achlaine is situated in a tranquil setting on the outskirts of the conservation village of Tomich in Inverness-shire.

Tomich is a pretty village with an array of traditional stone-built properties, close to Glen Affric. Tomich has a strong association with the origins of the Golden Retriever breed and hosts a regular gathering in the ruins of Guisachan House. The area is known for its walking, fishing, and wildlife with walks to Plodda Falls on the doorstep.

Tomich has a cafe and a country house hotel whilst nearby Cannich has a shop, post office and primary schooling, with secondary schooling available in Drumnadrochit.

Inverness, approximately 31 miles away, has all the facilities of a modern city including its airport with regular flights to the south and Europe.
